Course Information and Support

Getting Started

To get started with the course, from the Coursera "Home" page, click on "Go to Course". This will take you to an overview of the course content and progress made within the weekly modules.

Technical Support

If you experience any technical challenges connecting to Coursera or elements of the courseware, please visit the Learner Help Center. This post that is located on the Coursera Community Help & Questions chat explains additional details about chatting with Coursera support.

Course Team and Weekly Discussion Forums

If you have a question about the content, assignments, or discussions in the course, please use the weekly discussion forums, and remember to check carefully to see if your question has been asked. Please use this option to ask course-wide questions that you believe will benefit everyone. The course team will monitor the questions that are asked, and provide responses. You are encouraged to respond to questions as well, if you know the answer and can be a community support.
