

Get More From Georgia Tech

Georgia Tech Professional Education is an academic division of the Georgia Institute of Technology. We offer short courses, certificate programs and professional master’s degrees in a variety of formats to meet the needs of learners like you, worldwide.

Whether this is your first Georgia Tech course or you are returning for more, here's what you can expect from further study with us:

- More than 20 programs in STEM and business education such as computer science, project management, supply chain logistics, economic development, defense programs, and Lean Six Sigma.
- Flexible formats: online, face to face and blended formats as well as customized on-site training
- Courses taught by Georgia Tech faculty experts
- Practical, deep knowledge you can use immediately to stand out
- A credential that commands attention

Start Learning Today

Learn more about Georgia Tech Professional Education

Browse our courses

View our online catalog

(404) 385-3500 for assistance

Join our Community on LinkedIn

Interested in obtaining a Georgia Tech credential for your course?

You will be given the opportunity to purchase a Georgia Tech Badge further into your course, so be on the lookout for those instructions.

Go to next item Completed

