Peers will grade your project using these questions:

- Relevance : How relevant is the issue raised for a business or an organisation?
- Presentation : How well is the issue presented, in a visual and quantitative way?
- Level of information : Is it the right level of information? Nor too much, neither too little?
- Structure : Is the slide well structured? Do we have a hierarchy of information that allows to read the slide at different level of depth?

Each time assessed on a scale of 1 to 5, 1 being very bad, and 5 being very good

Sensing traffic mobility in the Washington D.C. area in 2011-2012 with the Bike Rental Data from the Capital Bikeshare system

Relevance : How relevant is the issue raised for a business or an organization?

- ☐ 5 pts
The issue is highly relevant, which could be critical for the organization to reflect or make further decisions.
- ☒ ~~4 pts~~ +4.5 pts because of a tie
The issue is quite relevant, which could be helpful to better understand a problem or come up with a better solution.
- ☐ 3 pts
The issue is relatively relevant, which is nice to know and should be in organization's radar.
- ☐ 2 pts
The issue is less relevant, which is not important for the current business.
- ☐ 1 pt
The issue is not relevant at all, which is not related to this company or organization.

Presentation : How well is the issue presented, in a visual and quantitative way?

- ☐ 5 pts
The issue is very well presented with sufficient quantitative evidence and clear visualization.

- ☒ ~~4 pts~~ +4.5 pts because of a tie
The issue is quite well presented with essential quantitative evidence and basic visualization.
- ☐ 3 pts
The issue is relatively well presented with limited quantitative evidence or visualization.
- ☐ 2 pts
The issue is presented with only quantitative evidence or visualization.
- ☐ 1 pt
The issue is not clearly presented at all because the slide doesn't include any quantitative evidence or visualization.

Level of information : Is it the right level of information? Nor too much, neither too little?

- ☐ 5 pts
The slide presents a perfect level of information, which has a good balance between high level summary and essential details
- ☒ 4 pts
The slide presents a good level of information, which contains both high level summary and essential details
- ☐ 3 pts
The slide presents several levels of information. Some of them are appropriate, but some of them not
- ☐ 2 pts
The slide presents either too much information or too little information
- ☐ 1 pt
The slide does not present any useful information

Structure : Is the slide well structured? Do we have a hierarchy of information that allows to read the slide at different level of depth?

- ☐ 5 pts
The slide is a very well structured. It does have a very good hierarchy of information that helps me better organize my understanding
- ☐ 4 pts
The slide is well structured. I can read the slide at different levels of depth
- ☒ ~~3 pts~~ +3.5 pts because of a tie
The slide is relatively well structured. I can read the slide at different level of depth, but the structure does not match my expectation
- ☐ 2 pts
The slide is not well structured. The hierarchy of information is confusing
- ☐ 1 pt
The slide is not structured at all. There is no hierarchy of the information
