

ENCOURAGE BIKESHARE USERS TO REGISTER TO IMPROVE PLANNING

- Many of the riders that use our bike sharing program are not registered. On some days, these casual riders exceed registered ones
- The charts below show that predicting the number of casual riders on a given day is more difficult than with registered riders
- More registered riders means better predictions and planning. This will result in more efficient resource allocation

