

Module 7 Summary

After completing all of the materials, please take a moment to reflect on what was covered. The learning objectives below capture the key takeaways from this module:

- Perform network pruning which is the way to remove redundant neural network weights for network compression.
- Perform knowledge distillation approach to transfer useful knowledge from a larger network to a smaller network to perform network compression.
- Understand the quantization approach for network compression.

Go to next item Completed Like Dislike Report an issue