

How to download course resources

We encourage you to check out the downloadable resources for videos. Some of our videos reference external links or files that are available in the Resources section. On video player pages, Coursera has moved Video Resource files and links to the Download dropdown menu alongside video, caption, and transcript downloads. See the screenshot below for an example of the new Download menu.

