Meet your instructor: Noah Gift

Hi everyone, I'm Noah Gift  - founder of Pragmatic AI Labs and Executive in Residence at Duke University. I'll be guiding you through this project.

I have over 20 years of experience as a software engineer, author, professor, and entrepreneur in the field of machine learning and cloud computing. I'm an AWS Machine Learning Hero and former CTO at various media/technology companies like Disney, ABC, and Linden Lab.

Throughout my career, I've published over 10 technical books on topics ranging from Python and DevOps to data engineering and MLOps, and over a Master's degree of Coursera content . I also teach graduate data science courses at Duke, UC Berkeley, Northwestern, and other universities.
